

Park Forest Historical Society
Presents
How to Start Family History Research:

A Roundtable Discussion
Want to start family research?
Have you hit a Brick Wall?

Discussion will focus on how to do research and find family stories, not on the stories people have found.

Sunday February 22, 2015
2:30 p.m.

Park Forest Village Hall
350 Victory Drive
Park Forest, IL 60466

This program is free and open to the public

For information, call Jane Nicoll, 708-481-4252, or Rose Thomas, Moderator, 708-743-6037, or 708-748-4756.

A representative of The Chicago Heights Family History Center will be there to share information about their resources and website, along with other experienced family researchers.

To learn more about Park Forest Historical Society, our programs or the 1950s Park Forest House Museum,

www.parkforesthistory.org

“Like” us on Facebook at “1950s Park Forest House Museum,” and at “Park Forest Historical Society.”